The House of Delegates and the Virginia Senate headed to court last week—not to make laws but to shoot hoops. The House won the annual General Assembly Championship Basketball Game by two points.

Senators, delegates, legislative assistants, staff members and occasionally the governor participates in the weekly competitions hosted at Virginia Commonwealth University.

The playing skills of Sen. Ken Cuccinelli (R-Centreville) won high marks from fellow Sen. Nick Rerras (R-Norfolk).

"Ken Cuccinelli played very, very well," Rerras said. "He had good ball-handling ability and a good shot."
