The Rozanne Garrett Epps Undergraduate Scholarship was established by friends and Epps family members in honor of Rozanne Garrett Epps, former director of Evening and Off-campus Studies, who retired in 1986. The scholarship is intended for undergraduate students who return to school after being in the workforce. Juniors and seniors from all undergraduate majors are invited to apply. Selection will be based on need and merit.

ESSAY REQUIREMENTS

EXPLAIN HOW THE SCHOLARSHIP WILL BENEFIT YOU. Examples: What barriers, if any, have you overcome while working toward your degree? What are your plans for completing your education? In what school/community activities have you participated? How will the degree you are pursuing fulfill your long-term career goals?
