

Part-Time Work**

Like Working with Adolescents? Have an Interest in Research?

WHO: Individuals with experience working with young people. Research experience desired. Bilingual Spanish speakers also needed.

WHAT: Data collection for grant-funded research project through the Clark-Hill Institute. Conduct recruitment activities in schools and/or in community, and administer computerized surveys with youth.

WHEN: Varied hours during school day; evening hours are available for telephone recruitment.

WHERE: Local city public middle schools and/or in-home individual interviews with youth.

WHY: Gain experience for your resume while being paid up to $13/hour and contribute to important research on positive youth development.

CONTACT: Send resume to Michelle Branch-Riley at mlbranchrile@vcu.edu

Part-Time Work *****